

gt.
Teppan Pms Assoc.
2-15-32

CONTENTS

OF THE QUARTERLY CHRISTIAN SPECTATOR.

VOL. VII.—1835.

---

No. I.

	PAGE.
ART. I. Encouragements to Effort, for the Speedy Conversion of the World, - - - - -	1
II. German Literature, - - - - -	13
III. Scriptural Argument, on the Episcopal Controversy, - - - - -	31
IV. Man's Dependence on the Grace of God, for Holiness of Heart and Life, - - - - -	76
V. Cousin's Psychology, - - - - -	89
VI. Character and Writings of Hannah More, - - - - -	127
VII. "Act and Testimony," - - - - -	152

---

No. II.

ART. I. The Domestic Constitution, - - - - -	185
II. An Inquiry into the true way of Preaching on Ability, - - - - -	223
III. Popery, - - - - -	258
IV. Phrenological Improvements in Mental Science and Education, - - - - -	274
V. The Nature and Application of Divine Influence in the Salvation of Man, - - - - -	301
VI. Cultivation of the Reasoning Powers, - - - - -	322
VII. Gurley's Life of Ashmun, - - - - -	330

No. III.

ART. I. Causes of Unsuccessfulness in the Ministry,	-	-	353
II. Watson's Theological Institutes,	-	-	376
III. A Translation and Exposition of Romans ix. 22, 23, 24,	-	-	382
IV. Wardlaw's Christian Ethics,	-	-	392
V. The Philosophy of Sleep,	-	-	422
VI. Spiritual Despotism,	-	-	445
VII. Beecher's Plea for the West,	-	-	481
VIII. Colonization and Anti-Colonization,	-	-	503

No. IV.

ART. I. Colonization and Anti-Colonization,	-	-	521
II. Christian Politics,	-	-	540
III. On Symmetry of Christian Character,	-	-	546
IV. On Self-Love,	-	-	564
V. Mitchell's Practical Church-Member,	-	-	569
VI. The Scriptural View of Divine Influence, as op- posed to Pelagian and other Views,	-	-	591
VII. Wayland's Elements of Moral Science,	-	-	597
VIII. Edson's Letters to the Conscience,	-	-	629
IX. Reed and Matheson's Visit,	-	-	644
X. Zinzendorff, and other Poems,	-	-	670

INDEX

TO THE

SEVENTH VOLUME

OF THE

QUARTERLY CHRISTIAN SPECTATOR.

---

ABILITY, true way of preaching, 223: three methods,—the first denies all power in man to obey, 225: Coleridge's views, 226-242: the third method, Witherspoon, Mason, etc., 243-257: its excellencies, 244, 245: its defects, 246-254: the true method described, 254-257.

— man's, proved from scripture and human consciousness, 234-235.

Act and Testimony, notice of, 152-184: a new test of Orthodoxy, 153: novel attitude of its authors, 154: anti-presbyterial 154-156: Examination of its charges of heresy:—relation to Adam, 159: regeneration, 161: divine influence, 164: Atonement, 168: native depravity and imputation, 169: Ability, 174:—Causes of this document, 176: love of power, 176, 177: mistaken notions on creeds and confessions of faith, 178: dangers and consequences, 184.

Anderson's domestic constitution, review of, 185-223.

Anxious seat, its propriety in revivals denied, 659-661.

Ashmun,—Gurley's Life of reviewed, 330-352:—his early labors as a teacher, 333, 334: editor of a paper in Washington, 338:—sails for Africa, 339: his labors and trials there, 340-348: returns to the United States, 349: dies at New-Haven, 350: affecting circumstance at his funeral, 352.

Beecher, Lyman D. D.—Plea for the West, 481: his portrait of the West, 490: views of the prevalence of popery, and method of averting the danger, 492-502.

— Rev. Edward, Notice of his Sermons on Holiness, 546, 547.

Birney, Judge,—his language in relation to Slavery, 507.

British Reformation Society,—Sixth annual Report of, reviewed, 258:—its principles and plan of operation, 259, 260:—rules and regulations, 261:—beneficial effects of its labors, 261, 262.

Causes of unsuccessfulness in the ministry, 353.

Chalmers, Dr.—his estimate of the moral evidence of the truth of Christianity, 399.

Character and writings of Hannah More, 127-151.

Chenevix, Richard, on Phrenology, 277.

Christian Politics, 540.

Coleridge,—denies human ability, 226:—holds to physical necessity and the self-determining power of the will, 227: the strain of preaching to which his theory leads, 239-242:—permits delay of repentance, 240, 241.

Colonization,—original scheme of the project for African, 510, 511:—has been greatly misrepresented, 517-538.

— and Anti-colonization, 503-540.

- Combe, Geo. on the constitution of man, 275.
 Congregational Union of England, 644, 645.
 Conscience, Edson's letters to, reviewed, 629.
 Consociations, power of,—discussed, 578—584.
 Conversion of the world,—encouragement to effort for, 1-12 :—its practicability, 9.
 Cousin's Psychology, 89-127.
 Creeds and confessions, nature and object, 178.
 Cultivation of the reasoning powers, 322.
- Dependence on the Grace of God,—nature, 77 : difficulties, 79-81 : beneficial influence of correct views, 82-89.
 Dialects, High and Low German, Upper and Lower, 17.
 Divine Influence,—Fact, 301 ; Nature, mysterious, 302 : effectual, 305 : sovereign, 309 : necessary, 311 : kind of necessity, 312 : Application of, 313 : a moral change in a free moral agent, 315 : considerations in view of the subject, 319.
 ——— scriptural view of, in opposition to Pelagian and other views, 591 : Pelagian view, 592 : Hopkins' view of the divine efficiency scheme, 593 :—the Scriptural view coincides with neither 594-597.
 Domestic constitution,—Nature : divinely appointed, 187 : peculiar union, 188 : parents the responsible head, 189 :—design : happiness of its members, support and education, 190, 191 : means of attainment, parents must be pious, 193 : obligation to keep the end in view, 194 : Extracts, 195-198 :—Education of dispositions, 198-201 : Influence of parental instruction, persuasion and discipline, example and prayers, 201-205 : hope of success, 205-207 : Causes of failure, 207-209 : Sanction of the domestic constitution, 209-217 : means of restoring tone of moral health, 217-233.
 Dreaming,—theory of, 425 : faculties how affected, 432 : illusion as to real objects : cases, 438, 439, 443.
- Edson's Letters to the Conscience, reviewed, 629.
 Education, phrenological improvements in, 274-301.
 Encouragement to effort for the conversion of the world, 1-12.
 Episcopacy, points which it is called to make out, 41.
 Ethics, different classes of philosophers, 393, 394.
 Evangelists for revivals, their influence on the churches unhappy, 663.
- Fuller, Rev. Andrew, his Gospel worthy of all Acceptation, an admirable performance, 225. Note.
- German Literature, 13-31.
 ——— literary character, 26-29.
 Grace of God, man's dependence upon, for holiness of heart and life, 76-89.
- Jay, Wm.—on Colonization, his picture of the Scheme for African Colonization, 517, 518 : its correctness examined and disproved, 519-538.
- Kant, his influence on the age, in which he lived, 23.
 Krummacher, extracts from his parables, 20, 21.
- Levison, J. L., Mental Culture, 276.
- Macnish, Robert, M. D.—Philosophy of Sleep ;—no philosopher, 422.
 Matheson, Dr. his description of a Sabbath at Orwell, Pa. 651-653.
 Mitchell, Rev. John,—his Practical Church-Member, review of, 569 : extracts, 585-591.
 Moral law,—contains the sanction of the domestic constitution, 209-217.
 ——— Science, Elements of, Wayland's, strictures upon, 604.
 More, Mrs. Hannah,—Character and Writings, 127-151 : her ability, 129 : superiority and beauty of intellect, 132 : refined taste and wit, 133 : moral beauty of her character, 134 : firm and decided spirit, 135 : humility, 136 : industry, 137 : piety : her scheme of religion eminently practical, 141 : high

- standard of piety in her works, 143 : great practical value of her writings, 144 : her letters, 146 : her poetry and prose compared, 147, 148 : excellences of her writings, 148, 149 : her style, 150.
- Nature and Application of Divine Influence in the salvation of man, 301.
- New Divinity, what is it ? 664.
- New measures in revivals, Dr. Reed's discussion of,—Remarks upon, 659--664.
- Onderdonk, Dr.—his reply to a former article, characterized, 32 : refutation of his principles of interpretation, 37--40 : remarks on his direct proof for Episcopacy, 42.
- Philosophy of Sleep, 422.
- Phrenological improvements in Mental Science and Education, 274--301 : claims reduced to three, 287 : examined 287--300.
- Popery, 258--274 : increase in Great Britain, 262, 263 : Reasons for apprehension : its general features adapted to success, 265--267 : particular reasons in our own country, 267--274. See also Plea for the West.
- Proofs of a Foreign Conspiracy, Review, 258.
- Psychology, Cousin's,—Review of, 89--127 :—Extracts, 101--109, 111--119, 121--125.
- Reasoning powers, cultivation of, 322--330.
- Reed and Matheson's Visit, review of, 644 :—inaccuracies of language, 647, 648 : also in facts, 650 : description of Northampton, Mass. 651 : of a Sabbath at Orwell, Pa. 651--653 : view of revivals, 655--659 : of New Measures, 659--664 : of New Divinity, 664.
- Revivals,—Dr. Reed's definition of, 654 : they pre-eminently characterize religion here, reasons, 655--659.
- Romans ix. 22--24,—Translation and Exposition of, 382--392.
- Schubart, extract from his history of the soul, 29.
- Scriptural Argument on the Episcopal Controversy, 31.
- Self-love, defined, 564 : its influence in right action, objections, &c. 566--569.
- Simmons, Rev. Charles, Extracts from his discourse on Rom. vi. 16, 166 ; Note.
- Simpson, James,—Popular Education, Review of, 277.
- Sigourney, Mrs.—Zinzendorff, and other poems, Review of, 670 : her poetry characterized, 671, 672.
- Sleep, Philosophy of, and Somnambulism, 422 : object, 423 : Dr. Good's theory, 424--430 : double consciousness in Somnambulism, Cases, 434--436.
- Spiritual Despotism, Review of, 445--481 ; Anti-American, 446 ; severe on English Dissenters, 449 ; exposes corruptions of the English Church, and proposes reform, 451 ; opposes the periodical press, 453 ; advocates alliance between Church and State, 455 ; the Author's positions examined and refuted, 460--467 ; Arguments on the opposite side stated, 480 ; Ante-diluvian world, case of Melchisedek, 460 ; Jewish Church, 461--465 ; corrupting influence of the voluntary principle alledged, 466 ; appeals to natural reason and honor, policy, 471--475 ; Church establishments better adapted to secure the independence of Clergy, 475 ; and support of Religion, 477.
- Spurzheim, Dr.—his Phrenology, 278.
- Symmetry of Christian Character, 546--564 ; its meaning, 549 ; dangers from want of it, 555--557 ; means of its cultivation ; its effects, 557, 558 ; pattern of Christ, 559 ; motives, 561.
- Taylor, Isaac Jr., Author of Spiritual Despotism, Natural History of Enthusiasm, etc. 445.
- Translation and Exposition of Romans ix. 22--24, 382--392.
- Uhland, the lost Church, 19.
- Unsuccessfulness of the Ministry, Causes of, 353--367 ; faulty methods of presenting God's sovereignty and dependence, 355 ; the gospel not regarded as a cause for immediate effort, 357 ; want of skill, 359 ; want of boldness and directness, 360 ; want of preaching Christ, 362 ; want of devotedness, 364.

Voluntary principle in support of religion,—defense of it in its true character, 468-471 ; Objections to independence, etc. answered, 475-480.

Wachler, Dr. Ludwig, his Manual of literary history, review of, 13.

Wardlaw, Ralph, D. D.—Christian Ethics, 392-421 ; Errors of his System, 401-418 ; gives up too much to the opposers of Christianity, 403 ; misapprehends the writers on Morals, 406 ; want of philosophical precision, 410 ; confounds the distinction between what man is in his constitution,—God's work, and what he is in moral character,—his own, 414 ; misapprehends Dr. Dwight's views on utility, 419.

Watson's Theological Institutes, 367.

—Richard,—an eminent Methodist divine, 367-369. His views of depravity, 370-373 ; of imputation, 373-375 ; of gracious ability, 374 ; of the divine law, 375 ; of moral necessity, 379.

Wayland, Pres. Elements of Moral Science, Review of, 597.

West,—Beecher's Plea for the, 481 ; Methods of aiding,—immigration, 485 ; how, 486, 487 ; permanent establishment of schools, colleges, churches, 488.

Zinzendorff, and other Poems,—Review of, 670.